

9-11 Corunna Street BERMAGUI NSW

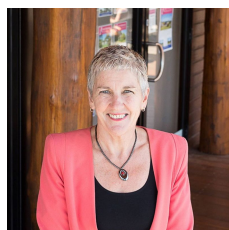

4  1  2

With the uniquely Bermagui northerly aspect of mountain and bay this is a very special parcel of half an acre of land (2027m²), zoned 2(b) medium density residential.

The current home, originally built in 1937 for the local doctor, is in tip-top condition. Featuring formal dining and living room with decorative plaster on ceilings, new modern kitchen, 4 bedrooms and study. The informal sunroom offers stunning views and loads of natural light.

With a double garage (with remote control doors), covered vegetable garden, established trees and shrubs. The property is fully-fenced and very private with rear lane access close to all town facilities and with unsurpassed outlook.
