

87 Murrah Street Bermagui NSW

3  2  6

When only the best will do - this is the property for you. Quality, private, contemporary home with stunning panoramic, northerly views and in a convenient central position in Bermagui.

In the perfect location, the original dwelling has had an architect-designed renovation with the huge garage and storage space the only recognisable features of the original home. Designed to capture the stunning views on both floors, the floor plan provides for separate guest or family areas, main bedroom suite with its own deck and ensuite and spacious open plan main living rooms. All built to quality specifications with features including floor to ceiling bi-fold window doors, louvre windows, attractive timber flooring and desirable features including a built-in day bed
