Set in a stunning rural landscape, an enviable, self-sufficient lifestyle is on offer in this private, picturesque property of 8.4 ha (20.7 acres). With river frontage and views of Mumbulla mountain, the property includes a charming mud brick home, large (12m x8m) shed including self-contained guest studio, double garage, workshop, and carport.

Nestled in a terraced, established garden, the mud brick home oozes charm and character while offering all modern inclusions. Light-filled and well-designed, the 2 bedroom house features pine-lined cathedral ceilings, large timber poles, new, country-style kitchen with modern range (gas top and electric oven), spacious bathroom with corner spa, office space, and expansive views from every room. The covered verandahs provide a choice of outdoor living options and attractive views of the gardens and Mumbulla
