

10440 Princes Highway Cobargo NSW

If you are seeking a 'fair dinkum' tree change but want to experience life on the land then this property offers a unique opportunity.

An attractive mix of bush (approx. 40 ha) and pasture (approx. 65ha) and with reliable water supply and storage, there are so many options. The forested sections adjoin National Parks, Sams Creek runs through the property and all this is located only 5 minutes to Cobargo and 20 minutes to the coast at Wallaga lake or Bermagui.

There is so much infrastructure in place - even without the homestead (a casualty of the bushfires) - and includes:

? Huge machinery shed - 12m x 12m with large container under roofline
