One of the most unique home designs in town that is perfectly suited to this huge block of 5921m2 (nearly 1.5 acres). Architect-designed to capture the winter sun and summer sea breezes, this home is flooded with natural light all year round. Combining convenient in town features and facilities (All town services) with attractive and private outlook through the spotted gums and established covered vege gardens, chook pens and orchard. Only minutes walk to local school and beautiful beaches, the property includes:

- Split level design with separate living areas and central kitchen,
- Timber floor boards throughout
- As new stainless steel range and dishwasher
