If you have been searching for a coastal retreat with plenty of privacy, character and charm then you may be near the end of your journey. Set on a picturesque parcel of approximately 18 acres this property has an attractive mix of sunny cleared areas and timbered forest.

The timber cottage has been lovingly finished and would ideally suit a couple or young family looking to live in their own little wonderland. Features of the property include:

- Open plan living/ dining area adjoining a spacious kitchen.
- Loft main bedroom that could potentially be turned into 2 conventional bedrooms if desired.
- Solid timber floors throughout.
- Freshly painted inside and lovingly maintained all over.
