

189 Mirador Drive Mirador NSW

This fantastic 860m2 block offers all you could want to build that dream home. Gently sloping, cleared, elevated and its North Easterly aspect and ocean views (that will only improve as the area takes shape) are major box tickers. Well sort after, the Mirador area offers so much. Central location to Tura Beach and Merimbula shopping as well as the peace and quiet not afforded to those busy towns. This block should certainly with its elevated and gentle slope not break the bank when it comes to site set up and initial construction costs. Dont wait, land is selling fast.
